Suicide From Grief. Melchoir Egloff, a German who keeps a saloon at Ninth and A streets northeast, committed suicide about 6 o'clock last night. Two shots were heard in the back yard night. Two shots were heard in the back yard of his house, and Mrs. Hannah Payne hearing the shots from her window, looked in the direction of Egloff's yard and saw him lying on the ground. When the police arrived they found that he had shot himself twice in the face near the mouth. His child died a few weeks ago, which is supposed to have preyed upon his mind and rendered him temperarily insane. No other cause can be assigned for the act.

Benten in a Row. William Robinson was severely beaten on the bend during a drunken discussion at a saloon on the corner of Third street and salcon on the corner of Third street and Virginia avenue southwest, about midnight last night, by a crowd of colored roughs, known as the "Buckley" gang. Officers Work and Lightbrown arrested five and locked them up at the Fourth Precinct Station. Robinson was removed to Fraction. Robinson was removed to Fractionan's Hospital, and in the Police Court this morning the case was continued, to await the result of his injuries.

AN IMPORTANT ARREST.

The Despuiler of Many Houses Caught With the Property in Her Trunks The police have been looking for a colored female sneak thief who has been doing a great deal of stealing, and this morning Detectives Wheeler and Mattingly arrested Ella Johnson in Goat Alley. She is one of the smartest sneaks in the business, and her trunk was carried to Police Headquarters and searched. In it was found some of the diamond jewelry, a gold watch and chain, that were taken in the rob-bery of Carrie Pearson's house, 494 Sixth street, when $600 worth of stuff was carried off. There was a lot of other goods found which the detectives think will be used as evidence in half a dozen charges against her. She is held for trial. The prisoner is black, and has always been described as wearing false bangs. A set of bangs were found in her trunk.

Governor Wells called upon Solicitor McCae to-day to say that he had received personal letters saying that the directors hoped to secure a meeting on Monday or Tuesday. The Solicitor is encouraged to believe that a satisfactory adjustment of the disputed questions will be reached.

The Commissioners have received a second report from the Building Iuspector and Engineer McComb on the Aqueduct Bridge. This report was made on the condition of the roadway, the Commissioners asking whether it was safe. The report says the roadway of the bridge is unsafe for any kind of travel. The report was approved by the Commissioners and Attorney Riddle had a conference at 3 o'clock to-day to dehad a conference at 3 o'clock to-day to de termine on what steps are necessary to close the bridge

The Duchess Released.
Ollie P. Ellis, alias Duchess of Califor ria, who has been in the custody of the police for two days, narrowly escaped death from an overdose of morphine at the Sixth Precinct Station-House last night, she was released from custody to-day by Judge Snell. Detective Raff charged her with being a suspicious person and recounted the previous charges that have been made against her. "People have a right to live somewhere in this world, and if they behave themselves they can live in the District of Columbia. In this country they don't try a person twice for the same effense. You must prove that she has done some specific act. I don't think there is a case here," said the Court. "Neither do I," said the prosecuting attorney. ria, who has been in the custody of the Heavy Frost in Maryland. There was a very heavy frost in Prince George's County, Md., last night. It caused a great deal of damage, especially to the to-bacco crep. Two-fifths of that crop was out and between forty and fifty per cent, of it was destroyed. Sweet potato and tomato vines were nearly all killed. The crop of late sweet corn, which had been planted to catch the market, was completely destroyed. The frost was one of the heaviest ever seen in Prince George's County.
